

Construction Manager

Alternative Power Generation is an up and coming engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) company located in the Chicago area with national landscape and we offer excellent growth opportunities for the right individual to come and grow with a fast-growing company.

We are seeking a Construction Manager to join our team! You will oversee/assist project planning, scheduling, budgeting, and site construction & implementation including commissioning and startup of assigned projects.

Responsibilities:

- Oversee all aspects of construction project from planning to implementation
- Supervise onsite personnel and subcontractors
- Interface with project inspectors, contractors, architects, engineers, city and county officials, and client representatives
- Negotiate with contractors to receive best pricing on change orders
- Maintain high standards of safety, quality, workmanship that adhere to original plans and specifications

Qualifications:

- Previous experience in construction management of electrical power distribution systems and substations is a plus
- Associate Degree in Construction Management or Engineering
- Developed leadership qualities
- Developed negotiation skills
- Commitment to meeting Deadline and be detail-oriented

Contact:

APG@alternativepowergen.com

Ph: 630 392 8499